Advantages for Manufacturing in Central Virginia

- The Central Virginia region is about 100 miles southwest of Washington, D.C. and provides access to more than half of the U.S. population and most major markets within 750 miles—most within a one-day delivery by truck.
- Composite cost of living is 29% lower in Central Virginia than Northern Virginia/D.C. region.
- Convenient access to the Port of Virginia, the deepest shipping channel on the East Coast.
- Excellent rail connectivity through Norfolk Southern and CSX with rail served sites located throughout the region.
- As one of Virginia's five strategically-placed Foreign Trade Zones, Central Virginia's FTZ #185 allows companies involved in international commerce to improve the cost competitiveness of their U.S.-based operations.
- Manufacturing firms benefit from generous local incentives for qualifying firms, including cash grants, loan guarantees, tax rebates, and training funds, and a favorable business structure, demonstrated by a low manufacturing tax structure.
- Virginia is a right-to-work state with the sixth lowest average workers' compensation costs in the country.
